Reg. No. 359

DIARY NO. 1962

19

The work in connection with the visit of the Royal Highness the Prince of Wales began about the end of April 1920 and has now become fairly large and special arrangements similar to those made in connection with the last Viceregal visit are necessary in the office to promptly deal with it.

The following allowances and temporary establishments may kindly be sanctioned from the 1st July 1920 to the end of January 1921.

Allowance to Mr. V. Subramanya Sastri, Superintendent. Rs 40/- to Mr. M.S. Raghavachar First Division Clerk. Rs 20/-

For One Temporary Typist Rs. 40.

The services of the cycle orderly at present entertained in the Food Supply section will be utilised for this work also.

Respectfully submitted.

It will be seen from the figures noted in the margin that there have been in all 107 papers on this subject till now of which more than 22 have been printed in the P.W.V. series.

The extra attention in the shape of searching old references for purposes of precedents, etc., bestowed on this importan matter during the month of July 1920 has not been inconsiderable and the several formalities regarding this special work whhh have been scrupulously attended to, have engrossed a considerable amount of time notwithstanding the fact that the work was still in its early stage.

If the Dewan Saheb be pleased to extend the sanction already accorded to have effect from the 1st July 1920, the benefit will be gratefully appreciated and would prove an incentive for further good work. The extra cost involved will be only Rs 160/- (Rs ~~160/-~~ 80/- for July and Rs 100/- for August).
